1. INTRODUCTION

This report is the ninth edition of Innovation Centre Denmark in São Paulo's funding guide for researchers.

It provides an overview of funding opportunities for researchers in Denmark and Brazil working or wanting to work with respective counterparts. Included in the report are current and expected openings and links to the official call texts where further information on eligibility and application criteria can be found.

The guide presents a selection of calls that to the knowledge of Innovation Centre Denmark in São Paulo are specifically relevant for collaboration between Danish and Brazilian researchers. It is, however, not an exhaustive overview of all current funding openings for international research collaboration.

For more information, questions and dialogue, or if you have suggestions for additional funding opportunities to be included in the next edition, please contact:

Horizon 2020 and co-funding from Brazilian 'FAP's'

Outline:	Horizon 2020 is the biggest EU Research and Innovation programme ever. It is aimed at securing Europe's global competitiveness. Horizon 2020 is open to participation from across the world. European researchers can include partners from anywhere in the world when preparing H2020 proposals. This means that Brazilian researchers, enterprises and institutions can team up with European partners to develop together knowledge, research data and leading scientific teams and networks. Not all international partners are automatically eligible for funding.
-----------------	--

	While the European Union will fund the participation of partners from developing countries, it does not automatically fund the partners from industrialised countries such as Brazil. However, it is expected that the programmes will include initiatives where: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The EU, in certain cases, decides to fund participation of entities from any country in the world, if the cases are identified in advance in the H2020 Work Programmes. • In exceptional cases, where participation is deemed by the Commission to be essential for carrying out the action, the EU may decide to fund a non-European participant in a project on an ad-hoc basis. Several State funding agencies (FAPs), including the agency from São Paulo, FAPESP, have expressed interest in funding researchers from their own states to support their participation in H2020 calls and have published guidelines on how to apply. Besides FAPESP, the state funding agencies of the following Brazilian states have published guidelines: Santa Catarina, Minas Gerais, Goiás, Distrito Federal (Brasília), Mato Grosso do Sul and Paraná.
Research Fields:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • FET (Future and Emerging Technologies) • Research Infrastructures • Space • Health • Food • Energy • Transport • Environment • Europe in a Changing World • Secure Societies • Science with and for Society
Organisation:	European Union
Nationalities:	28 Member States of the European Union ; EU candidate countries and partners countries
What is funded:	Amount varies from project to project
Duration:	Depends on the programme
